

No Growth – Accuser

And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.

An accuser claims a person has done something wrong and tells someone else about it. What happens now? This situation may be unclear for the victim. However, at some point, the accused will obtain information and address the issue. The individual has no clue about the accuser but will eventually discover who it is. The first thing an accuser does is look for someone to target. That person may be successful, intelligent, or have potential. This man or woman is what the enemy would endeavor to attack because he needs a body to corrupt. Anyone is available to persuade by changing their perspective by deception. This kind of activity is from the devil himself. The accuser has three areas of the body that work together. The heart brings thoughts to the head that transfers the data to the mouth. The lies run quicker than the truth. Whenever the enemy uses a person to fabricate against another involves feedback of criticism. The accuser that is the chief master within this area is Satan. The enemy always keeps an eye on his prey. To look for a reaction from the victim that he is trying to destroy. The accuser has a motive to rob you of a positive image. The informer has the intention to wipe out your good influence on others. Satan desires to wreck your life in every way.

Prayer: Dear God, help me to forgive my accusers and forgive me if I accuse anyone. Thank you, God.
