

Outer Growth - Attack

For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

Killjoy-----Ephesians 4:31

What causes a person to want to attack someone else? An attack from one person to another begins on the inside. The initial assumption of thoughts from the mind of the attacker toward that person is where the problem lies. The more time a person spends on thinking about it, the more negative thoughts can develop. This kind of mood from the attacker is where a demonic spirit can enter the scene to help convert it to reality.

For an unbeliever, it could ignite while conversing with other associates that regularly engage in this lifestyle. The more they hear, the more they will consider it.

For a believer, the environment must be free from bad influences. The importance of a person, in general, is to surround themselves with people that will pursue positive goals with a purpose. This activity would block out any negative thoughts of that nature.

Prayer: Dear God, help me to forgive others who attack me. Forgive me if I am at fault for this to happen. Thank you, God.
