Right-----Proverbs 16:18

Idols-----1 John 2:16

Ego-----Proverbs 8:13

Pride is a feeling of self-importance on the inside with the demonstration on the outside. This attitude inside of a human being will hinder the belief in the existence of God.

An arrogant person will not acknowledge God in their achievements or that they receive help from others in personal endeavors. Some of them would not even mention anything if they did receive assistance.

Self-important people build up this confidence from the assumption of their thinking of being right. The mindset of being right in what they say and right in what they are capable of doing.

Pride in a person includes the admiration for people, material possessions, occupation, and social status. These particular types of things would distract and occupy the mind of such a person.

Pride is dangerous because it is all about self and does not allow any potential for consideration towards someone else. This arrogant way of life is the very nature of the devil.

A conceited character is to promote oneself in life throughout society with no concern for others around them. The problem with pride is it has no care or concern for others.

Pride is self-exaltation and the opposite of submission to God or people that would offer.
