What is attitude? Attitude is our mental outlook. There are two options that we must decide to display from our outward appearance toward something or someone. This attitude is either good or bad.

Actions speak louder than communication.

Especially for believers, where God sees everything from our perspective and knows the thoughts we generate towards people or things. As we know, when we speak, the process of our words went through our mental system.

Attitude determines our mood. Even when we speak no words for the public to hear, the state of our minds can portray an image in our environment. Trouble occurs when we react with an attitude towards others based on something they said or did against us and not reconcile after. Attitude could hold us back on how we treat others. Especially after a bad experience, what are we supposed to do? Be bias? They will understand us based on our deeds towards them.

Attitude begins with who or what we see. For example, there are two people we know and encounter at a variety store. One of them has a friendly relationship with us and the other unfriendly. How do we react in this situation? Show a good gesture to the friendly one and disregard the other? As believers, this is wrong in the eyes of God.

The view from our perspective is the beginning of attitude. We are all equal in the eyes of God. Let us try to have the right attitude toward everybody.
