FATHER	MOTHER
FOUNDATION- helps establish the child's character and environment	MANAGER- assists the child in self control and demeanor
ABILITY- assists in the child's mindset to do things creatively	OPEN- an influence in terms of communication and expression
TIME - gives child attention while interacting with each other	TIME- gives the attention during the child's development
HEAD- leads by example	HEART- child learns about inner feelings
EDUCATOR- tutors and helps the child understand while learning different things	ENCOURAGE- helps give child the confidence to achieve goals
RESPONSIBLE- aids in whatever tasks the child needs to accomplish	RELIABLE- the child learns about being independent
These qualities could come from either parent. Each family situation is different. Occupation and the relationship between parents normally is a key role as to which characteristics the child inherits.
