

Outer Growth - Marriage Vows 1

- Management-----1 Peter 3:1, 7
- Authentic-----Mark 10:9
- Responsibility----Ephesians 5:33
- Relatives-----Ephesians 4:29, 1 Timothy 5:8
- Identity-----Romans 12:2
- Associates-----Ephesians 4:29
- God----- Ephesians 5:21, 1 Corinthians 11:1-2
- Enemy-----James 4:7, 1 John 5:19
- Vows-----1 Corinthians 7:1-40
- Ownership-----James 4:17
- Women-----Romans 7:2, Ephesians 5:22-25
- Share-----Hebrews 13:16, 1 Corinthians 7:3

...Promise to love, cherish, and obey.
 ...have and to hold, from this day forward,
 ...for better or worse, for richer or poorer,

Wedding day for a couple is about coming together and reciting their vows to each other. However, when the beautiful ceremonial day ends, the wedding vows begin. Traditionally, the vow for a couple is to love, cherish, and obey each other.

Each spouse should take the initiative to ensure the new marriage starts with a balance of the attributes (Chart below).

Characteristics	Vows
emotional	for better or worse
environmental	for better or worse
financial	for richer or poorer
occupational	for richer or poorer
physical	In sickness and in health
residential	for richer or poorer
social	for better or worse