Hell is known as a place of eternal punishment for wicked people after they die and imagined to be governed by Satan and his devils. This is the dictionary perspective of the place of punishment for people that have done bad things. The biblical perspective mentions hell will be for fearful people who value their status on earth more than their loyalty to Christ and the truth of His Word. Their safety is worth more than their faithfulness to God. Then there are the unbelieving people which include former believers in Christ. Due to their unbelief and disobedience they were overcome by various sins. These particular classes of people followed by the killers, adulterers, idolaters, and liars shall have their part in the lake of fire.

Hell is a place that will be home for those who do not comply with the Word of God. The Bible does not state when this horrible place was created. However, hell is a real place where people feel the fire where it is not quenched. The Bible mentions extreme heat and no moisture. Hell is a place of outer darkness, a furnace of fire where people will be wailing, weeping, and gnashing of teeth. Hell is the place of eternity for people who continue to reject and separate themselves from God. The Bible mentions the sorrows of hell which means there will be pain, suffering, and grief. The Bible talks about the lowest hell, deeper or depths of hell which means there are levels of punishment for certain people who will be going there if they do not repent and change their ways. Hell is known as a pit that enlarges itself as people go into it.

Hell will be the future destination for Satan and his angels. According to Matthew, in the New Testament, verse forty-one of chapter twenty-five, hell was prepared for them. How can a spirit being known as the son of the morning, be kicked out of Heaven? This means he did something that was dismissable. Therefore, the only alternative for a spirit being like that would be another place.

Hell was never intended for the lives of human beings but the evil spirit beings. People will go there due to their evil actions.

Hell is the opposite of everything good. There is no light but night, no peace but torment, no happiness but sorrow, no today or tomorrow.
