Book of 1 Corinthians

Subtitles
(Poetic Format)

Paul's thanksgiving is the start of the first book of Corinthians,
an appeal for unity, Christ, God's power and wisdom,
The gospel in Spirit and power, true wisdom the gift of God, opens, fellow labourers for God, fellow workers with God, for His kingdom.

Lost of reward with God, Apostles of Christ,
Paul's warning, judgment of the immoral,
expel the immoral person, in an orderly manner, be nice,
reject evil members of the church, without a quarrel.

Lawsuits among brethren, God to be glorified in the body.
Marriage, marriage and separation,
mixed marriages, abiding in God's will, to embody.
Marriage and Christian service, food offered to idols, information.

Christian rights, Paul gives up his rights,
the Christian race, the idolatry in the wilderness.
Prohibition of idol feasts, do all to the glory of God, your might.
The covering of women's heads, the Lord's supper, faithfulness.

The diversities of gifts, the manifestation of the Spirit,
the importance of all gifts, the way of love.
Prophecy and tongues, the Holy Spirit,
Prophecy and interpreted tongues equally important, from above.

Uninterpreted tongues no benefit to others,
Pray to interpret,
Paul's use of tongues, prophecy brings conviction of sin, rather,
the use of spiritual gifts, the resurrection, the purpose.

No resurrection, no salvation, troubling,
The believer's resurrection guaranteed,
The resurrected body, the changed body at Christ's coming,
the collection for the poor, Paul's itinerary, the need.

Concluding message,
this is the poetic summary for the first book of Corinthians, to relish.
