The God of all comfort begins the second book of Corinthians.
Paul's change of plans, forgiveness of an offender.
Ministers of the new testament, a ministry of glory, to humans, an honest and tried ministry, the trials of ministry, a true leader.

The eternal glory of the ministry, a confident ministry,
a reconciling ministry, a suffering ministry,
Believers are the temple of God, the joy of good news, spiritually, the giving of the Macedonians, the example of Jesus, Holy.

Coming of Titus, God loveth a cheerful giver.
Giving generously, Paul defends his ministry,
Paul fear's of false teachers, Paul's rightful boasting, consider,
Paul's apostolic suffering, Paul's vision of the Lord, unconsciously.

The signs of a true apostle, the appeal for repentance,
farewell and benediction, the advice in a sentence,
this is the poetic summary, the second book of Corinthians, sense.
