Subtitles

(Poetic Format)

Judgment on the nations begins the book of Amos,
Prophecy against Israel, the relation of Israel to God,
Israel's failure to return to God, their fault, erroneous,
The call to repentance, the offer from God, for Israel, flawed.

The day of the Lord, captivity inevitable.
Oppression and desolation, two plagues,
the vision of the plumbline, Intelligible.
The vision of Israel's ruin, their judgment, no charades.

The destruction of the sanctuary, Israel's fortune to be restored, this is the poetic summary for the book of Amos, to him by our Lord.
