The Son of God's revelation is the intro for the book of Hebrews.

The Son superior to angels, the role of Christ in Salvation,
Christ the high priest, the captain of our salvation, head of the crew,
Christ the high priest, Christ superior to Moses, to save the nation.

The danger of an unbelieving heart, hold firmly until the end, the promise of rest, Christ the way to God.

Christ the perfect high priest, in Him we can depend,
reproved for immaturity, warning against apostasy, to defraud?

Encouragement to be faithful, God's oath unchanging,
the priesthood of Melchisedec, Christ's priesthood superior, Christ our interceding priest, the only one to God standing, superiority of the new covenant, instituted by Christ, the carrier.

Temporary sacrifices by Levites, the eternal sacrifice of Christ,
Christ's one time sacrifice, Christ's better sacrifice.
Boldness to approach God, the appeal to hold fast, encouragement to persevere in the faith, faith defined, the advice.

Examples of faith: the patriarchs, Abraham and his family,
Moses, Israelites and Rahab, judges and the prophets, Christ our example, our Majesty, God disciplines His sons, an appeal for holiness, a holy lab.

Warning against turning away from God, warnings and requests, this is the poetic summary for the book of Hebrews, the guests.
