

The Old Testament

Book of Joshua

Subtitle

(Poetic Format)

In the book of Joshua, the Lord instructs Joshua, two spies sent to Jericho, Israel crosses the Jordan.

Circumcising the nation, a celebrated euphoria,
the fall of Jericho, Achan's sin, unforbidden misfortune.

The destruction of Ai, an altar built in Mount Ebal,
The trickery of the Gibeonites, the sun stands still.

Conquest of the south, the battle, an upheaval, conquest of the north, a war for Joshua to win, God's will.

Defeated kings, land yet to be conquered,
Land east of the Jordan, land west of the Jordan.
The borders of Judah, solid that is not unaltered,
Ephraim and Manassah, a family inheritance, fortune.

Assigning of the inherited land, the land of Benjamin.
the land of Simeon, the land of Zebulun.
The land of Issachar, the family line within,
the land of Asher, the tribe of the children.

The land of Naphtali, the land of Dan,
The six cities of sin, cities for the Levites,
eastern tribes return home, over multiple days span,
Joshua address to Israel, calling for all Israel, an invite.

Israel renews the covenant, the death of Joshua,
This is a poetic summary of the book of Joshua.

References

Josh 1:1 - 18

2:1 - 24, 3:1 - 5:1,

2 - 12

13 - 6:27, 7:1 - 26

8:1 - 29, 30 - 35

9:1 - 27, 10:1 - 27

28 - 43

11:1 - 23

12:1 - 24, 13:1 - 7

8 - 33, 14:1 - 15

15:1 - 63

16:1 - 17:18,

18:1 - 10, 11 - 28

19:1 - 9, 10 - 16

17 - 23

24 - 31

32 - 39, 41 - 51

20:1 - 9, 21:1 - 45

22:1 - 34

23:1 - 16

24:1 - 27, 28 - 33