Prayer of thankfulness is the start for the book of Philippians,
Paul's boldness in prison, Christ's glory through life and death.
The privilege of suffering, imitating Christ's humility, a participant, obligations of Christians, the duty of faith to sustain, the depth.

Timotheus and Epaphroditus, Epaphroditus's dedicated service, the example of Paul, Paul's desire to serve Christ.
The high calling of God, warning against false brethren, a crevice, appeal to rejoice in the Lord, the Philippian gifts, the delight.

Concluding benediction,
this is the poetic summary in the book of Philippians.
