

The New Testament

Book of Romans

Subtitles

(Poetic Format)

Thanksgiving and prayers are the beginning of Romans,
the Gentiles guilty before God, God's wrath against the Gentiles.
God's principles of judgment, Jews do not obey the law, humans.
Advantages of the Jews, the world guilty before God, the lifestyles.

Faith: the means of salvation, Abraham's salvation apart from works,
Abraham's salvation apart from circumcision,
Abraham's salvation apart from the law, a true convert,
Abraham's salvation was by faith, a life decision.

Results of justification by faith, Christ the basis of our salvation, believers dead to sin, alive in Christ,
slaves to righteousness, believers dead to the law, determination.
The Christian struggle, Jesus Christ delivers from sin, His sacrifice.

Life in the Spirit, the Spirit gives sonship,
the future glory, the Spirit helps in prayer, within,
the Spirit communicates God's love, kingship.
God's righteousness and mercy, God's purpose of mercy and justice,

God's mercy and justice defended, the gospel offered to the Jews.
Israel's unbelief toward Christ, unbelief toward the prophets, notice,
the remnant of Israel, Israel's future salvation.
Christian conduct, exhortation to love,

Submission to authorities, responsibility toward others, compassion, the weak and the strong, causing a brother to fall, a verbal shove.
Self-denial on behalf of others,
Paul's reason for writing,

Paul's future plans, endeavors,
commendations and greetings.
This is the poetic summary for the book of Romans, well-pleasing.

References

Rom. 1:8 - 17
18 - 23, 24 - 32
2:1 - 16, 17 - 29
3:1 - 8, 9 - 20

21 - 31, 4:1 - 8
9 - 12
13 - 15
16 - 21

5:1 - 11, 12 - 21
6:1 - 10, 11 - 14
15 - 23, 7:1 - 6
7 - 23, 24 - 25

8:1 - 11, 12 - 17
18 - 25, 26 - 30
31 - 39
9:1 - 5, 6 - 18

19 - 29, 30 - 33
10:1 - 15, 16 - 21
11:1 - 10, 11 - 36
12:1 - 8, 9 - 21

13:1 - 7, 8 - 14

14:1 - 12, 13 - 23

15:1 - 13

14 - 21

22 - 33

16:1 - 27