

wisdom, His Word, the Holy Book, and so forth. There are so many things, miracles, and blessings from God that we, as children of God, are to be thankful that we can begin to recall and catch up in giving thanks. Thankful Thursday is something to embrace, although we can give thanks to God anyday and anytime during the week. Have a thankful Thursday.

Thankful Thursday

Thursday is a day of the week between Wednesday and Friday. However, for most countries, it is the fourth day of the work week, but not for all. Thursday on the calendar falls on the fifth slot, with Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday ahead, while Friday and Saturday come after this day. For non-believers, Thursday in the work week gives workers a sense that the work week is finishing, and some workers acknowledge the day as a little Friday, which is the following day. After Hump Day, Thursday is a better feeling of work. Physically and mentally, workers are more in a groove with their jobs.

Today, we experience people being thankful for many things in various situations. We encounter individuals opening the door and holding it for others to go in or come out, and the reply "thank you" is given. Other instances are giving a helping hand when needed to someone else, letting someone in a lane when driving on the road, and offering a shopper to go ahead at the checkout line because they have one or two items. All of these examples may result in a thank-you gesture.

On the other hand, believers should be thankful for the Father, the living God, for what He has done for us. Thankful Thursday is a suggestion that believers should have recalling and telling God, "Thank you." Whether big or small, thanking the Lord for salvation, love,
